

Port Angeles Downtown Association
Barbara Frederick, PADA 457-9614
Drew Schwab, Promotions Chair 797-1313
For Immediate Release

Great Downtown Crab Hunt

The Port Angeles Downtown Association is giving the public a chance to go 'crabbing' throughout downtown during the Great Downtown Crab Hunt Oct 8 & 9. Twenty seven businesses will have a crab, "Mr. Claws", hidden somewhere in the business for customers to find. Once they do they can get their Catch Record card punched at the business and be eligible for prizes. The event coincides with the Dungeness Crab & Seafood Festival.

Catch 5 crab and be entered into the 'fine' drawing for downtown gift certificates and prizes, catch half or 13 to be entered into the 'half pot' prize of $50 downtown dollars, catch 17 or more and be entered into the 'full pot' drawing for $100 Downtown Dollars.

Punch cards will be available at participating businesses and at the Port Angeles Downtown Association at the Crab Fest on the city pier beginning Saturday Oct. 8.

Participating businesses are

Anime Kat 110 W. First; Bay Variety 135 W. First; Captain T's 124 W. Railroad;
Cottage Queen 119 W. First; Fiddleheads 126 W. First; Golden Crafts 112 S. Lincoln; Heidi's Hair Studio 211 W. First; Blowhard Glass 110 E. Railroad; Landings Art Gallery 115 E. Railroad; Mark'd Body Art 118 W. First; Maurices 104 W. First; Northwest Fudge & Confections 108 W. First; Odyssey Bookshop 114 W. Front; Olympic Stationers 122 E. Front; Pacific Rim Hobby 138 W Railroad; Port Book & News 104 E. First; Rick's Place 104 W. Front; Rissa's Consignment 316 W. First; Sound bikes & Kayaks 120 E, Front ;Smugglers Landing 115 E. Railroad; Sterling Impressions Photographic 103 W. First; Teenie Queenie 117 W. First; Tiger Lily Clothing 123 E. First; Trading Post Antiques 114 W First; Twisted Mischief 108 E. First; Unique Treasures Mall 105 W. First; and Wine on the Waterfront 115 E. Railroad.

For complete contest rules visit portangelesdowntown.com.